

20/21 Incoming Fourth Grade Summer Assignments

Students will be responsible for completing the following summer assignments to help prepare them for the upcoming school year. We hope that within the structure of these assignments you can find topics you are interested in.

Weekly Math and Reading Log

Included here is a log to keep you on track with your math and reading skills. Use this to help guide you in your pacing throughout the summer and to ensure you get in a good mix of the work you are doing. You should bring your completed logs to your teacher on the first day of school.

Math Concepts

Students will work on the program “Prodigy” to practice a variety of skills to help prepare for fourth grade. The students will need to log into Prodigy and work for 60 minutes a week (www.prodigygame.com). Students should use their school password. The code is 8DAF51. If you are a new student, you will sign in as a new student and then the program will generate a username (save this for reference).

Look to focus on the following topics:

- Multiplication and division facts to 12
- Practicing word problems using those facts
- Area/Perimeter
- Regrouping with Addition and Subtraction
- Place Value
- Fractions (Adding and Subtracting with Like Denominators, Equivalent, Comparing)
- Order of Operations

Reading Assignments

Students will be required to read Tales of a Fourth Grade Nothing, by Judy Blume. They will need to complete one of the tasks attached for the novel. Students should be ready to share at the start of the school year.

In addition, students should read 1 book of their choosing from the attached list. Students should read for 60 minutes each week and record reading time on the reading log.

Task #1-Dear Abby  Imagine that you are allowed to give one character some advice or words of wisdom. Write a letter to one of the characters that offers them some wise advice that can help them in the novel. Be sure to use specific evidence from the novel as support.	Task #3-Word Cloud Collage  Create a Word Cloud Collage of words, phrases, and sentences from the novel that describes the novel to someone who has never read it. You may select to cover the entire novel or focus on a single element (character, setting, theme, etc.)
Task #2-Morning Announcements  Imagine that your school is trying to encourage reading by promoting a different book each morning during announcements. You have been selected to write an announcement for the novel you just read. Create a 30 second advertisement that will describe the novel and the reasons why other students at your school should read the novel.	Task #4-Trading Places  Imagine that you wake up one morning and have become the main character in the novel. What would you do differently in the novel? Use textual evidence to explain why you would change things or keep them the same.
